WORRY OR PRAY?

Worry? Why Worry? What can worry do?
It never keeps a trouble from overtaking you.
It gives you indigestion and sleepless hours at night.
And fills with gloom the days, however fair and bright.

It puts a frown upon the face, and sharpness in the tone.
We're unfit to live with others and unfit to live alone.
Worry? Why Worry? What can worry do?
It never keeps a trouble from overtaking you.

Pray? Why Pray? What can Praying do?
Praying really changes things, arranges life anew.
It's good for your digestion, gives peaceful sleep at night.
And fills the grayest, gloomiest day with rays of glowing light.

It puts a smile upon your face, the love note in your tone,
Makes you fit to live with others, and fit to live alone.
Pray? Why Pray? What can praying do?
It brings God down from Heaven, to live and work WITH you.

CAN YOU BEAT THIS!!

Tuesday, November 4, a Sewing Department employee at Division I asked Murma if she could get off to vote. Murna needed her to work real badly and she asked her if she couldn't wait until the next day to vote. That's really putting work first!!!

As a feature of the occasion, the members were presented nice cash gifts, the result of local contributions received under the chairmanship of E. T. Mitchell. COMMENT ON SPORTS

By Pete Pritchie

Washington.- It is obvious to all concerned that the logical heavyweight championship fight is one between Floyd Patterson and Ingemar Johansson. The later gent is a pounder from the north country, Sweden, to be exact.

Back in mid-September, he met previously underaied Eddie Machen, a highly - ranked heavy, and iced him away in the first stanza.

That even impressed the skeptical, of which, of course, one is Cus D'Amato.

The later gent is manager of the heavyweight champion. Te is especially coy about letting his champeen fight anyone and, mostly, Patterson has meet amateurs, or those not considered too dangerous. And maybe this fellow Ingemar has rocks in his fist.

He and Edwin Ahlquist, who happens to be his manager, came to New York the other day—maybe for no reason at all. But the purpose was to talk to Cus about Ingemar and Patterson trading smacks for the title and the green pile which goes to the best smacker.

Cus was so coy he wouldn't even let the photogs snap his picture with the Swedish gent. But he had this authentic gem for the press on his mental evaluation of Ahlquist, calling his, "a man or honesty and integrity."

On Ingemar: ....'an intelligent young fighter. I'm surprised."

SAY IT WITH SAVINGS BONDS, SANTA

"Say it With Savings Bonds, Santa," seems to be what Polly Bergen, stage and screen, and television star, is telling Santa Claus as they cuddle under a holly wreath decorated with United States Savings Bonds. Santa might very well be telling Polly about the Treasury's new gift booklets of U. S. Savings Stamps now available at all post offices in $2.50 and $5.00 sizes. Both Polly and Santa agree that U. S. Savings Bonds and Savings Stamps make ideal gifts for all occasions. Miss Bergen may be seen regularly on CBS-TV "To Tell the Truth" and in a forthcoming Broadway play "Faster, Faster."

Dear Santa,

I would like to have a set of encyclopedias, a microscope lab with shrimp eggs and with power up to 650, and I would like to have a few surprises. I liked the Christmas parade. I have tried to be a good boy and would like to have some of these things.

Love,

McCORMICK YULE PARTY

The family of the late Mr. and Mrs. L. S. McCormick, of Appomattox, gathered for Christmas fellowship at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. McCormick, of Spout Spring, on Sunday, Dec. 14, 1958, at 2:30 o'clock. Wiley McCormick, of Lynchburg, told the Christmas Story, after which Earl Clapp, also of Lynchburg, led a Christmas prayer. The rest of the program was given by the children. Wanda Kaye Carter sang, "We Three Kings"; Maurine McCormick played a piano solo, "Whispering Hope," and "Silent Night" was sung by Bonnie and Linda Williams. Denise Clapp, Brenda Lee McCormick, Barbara and Wanda Carter and Maurine McCormick.

The formal part of the program was presided over by Mrs. R. B. McCormick. Franklin and Joyce Vaughan assisted the group as they sang Christmas Carols.

A social hour followed the program, during which Polyanna packages were exchanged and the evening meal was served.

Those who attended were: Mr. and Mrs. Calvin McCormick, Patricia and Calvin Jr.; Mr. and Mrs. Wiley McCormick, Brenda and Rocky; Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Williams, Linda and Bonny; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Clapp, Denise and Clinton; Mr. and Mrs. Bennie McCormick and Mr. and Mrs. James Ferguson, all of Lynchburg; Mr. and Mrs. R. B. McCormick, and Maurine; Mr. and Mrs. C. R. McMcCormick, Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Vaughan and Joe, all of Spout Spring; and Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Carter, Barbara and Wanda, of Appomattox.

Everyone enjoyed the family fellowship and the beautiful Christmas decorations made everyone feel that Christmas will soon be here. A fresh blanket of snow also played its part to promote the Christmas spirit.

This Yule gathering has become an annual affair and the guests departed already looking forward to next year and wishing to all a Merry Christmas.

Santa Claus will be in Appomattox this Saturday at 2:00 P. M., with gifts for the children. Sponsored by Appomattox Lions Club.
